NC CHAMBER CONFERENCE FOR WOMEN

SEPTEMBER 21, 2017

RALEIGH, NC

Venessa Harrison President AT&T North Carolina

Venessa Harrison is president, AT&T North Carolina, a position to which she was named in March 2013, having previously served as regional vice president of external affairs. In her current position, she is responsible for the public policy, economic development and community affairs activities of AT&T, a leading provider of wireless and wireline communications services. In her role, she works closely with state and community leaders to help bring new technology and jobs to the state and improve the quality of life for all North Carolinians.

A native North Carolinian, Harrison began her career with AT&T and its predecessor companies in the Operator Services organization. She subsequently she moved through positions of increasing responsibility in the network, business and regulatory and external affairs departments.

In addition to her AT&T responsibilities, Harrison has also been very involved in community, charitable and education activities. She currently serves on the Board of Trustees of North Carolina A&T State University, the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Chamber, the Foundation for the Carolinas, and the Charlotte Regional Visitors Authority (CRVA). She is also currently working with North Carolina CEOs focusing on increasing 3rd-grade reading proficiency.

Ms. Harrison holds a Business Administration degree from the University of Phoenix. She is married with two children.
