

ENERGY & ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 24, 2017 | DURHAM, NC

Bruce C. McKay
Senior Energy Policy Director
Dominion

Bruce McKay serves as senior energy policy director for Dominion, one of the nation's largest and most diverse energy companies. McKay is responsible for the development and execution of strategies to advance Dominion's positions on state and local matters affecting the company's natural gas businesses.

McKay joined Consolidated Natural Gas in 1995 and became part of Dominion when the two companies merged in 2000. From 2006 to 2016 McKay managed Dominion's federal affairs office in Washington DC. Prior to joining Consolidated Natural Gas he served as legislative director to U.S. Representative Earl Pomeroy (ND) and legislative assistant to former U.S. Senator Quentin Burdick, focusing on energy and natural resource issues.

McKay is past chairman of numerous industry organizations including the Government Relations Committee of the Center for LNG, the Legislative Committee of the Interstate Natural Gas Association of America, the Government Relations Committee of the Domestic Petroleum Council, and the Legislative Committee of the American Gas Association.

McKay was raised on a farm near Valley City, North Dakota. He attended the University of North Dakota, earning a B.A. in political science and a B.S. in public administration. He is married to Anne Miniter McKay, has three children, Justin, Campbell and Jackson, and resides in Great Falls, Virginia.
